Psyched! may not challenge your deepest beliefs but, it will rekindle your awareness of fun, laughter and life's possibilities.

"Some of the routines you're about to experience are based on world class magic and illusion; this is for those of you who require explanations about "How'd he do that?".

*However, most of the experiences I plan to share with you tonight involve something else; for these...there may be only one explanation...and it could keep you up at night!
Shall we begin?"*
